LACY CREEK, KY., Dec. 21, 1900.
Editor HERALD:

DEAR SIR—Seeing an editorial in your paper to the citizens of Hazel Green and vicinity in regard to whiskey being sold in your town.
As justice of the peace for Wolfe county, all I ask of the good citizens of Hazel Green and vicinity, is their co-operation in putting down crime of any kind, and especially the sale of liquors of any kind. I am against the sale of the cursed stuff in any way, and if the citizens of Hazel Green and community will report those violators of the law to me, I will have them brought to account for such violation as speedily as I can.

Yours respectfully,
Jno. D. Rose, J. P. W. C.

Hazel Green Academy will open for the winter and spring terms, next Tuesday, January 1st. Prof.
Cord tells us the prospects for an increased enrollment and attendance were never so good before.
The "two hundred mark" will be reached in enrollment, and everything will be "as busy as busy can be."

Don't fail to get Truth's beautiful calendar for 1901. It accompanies the Christmas number of the magazine, and is a marvel of beautiful color work. The design is a four paneled screen, printed on heavy card board, with reproductions from paintings by the well-known artist, Percy Moran.

WEST LIBERTY, Dec. 20, 1900.
The democratic committee of the 91st legislative district, composed of the counties of Morgan and Wolfe, are requested to meet at Ezel, Ky., on December 29, 1900, to attend to any business that may come before it.

JOHN CARTER,
Chairman of Morgan county.

Miss Emma Fallen, of Gilmore, and her brother, Lee Fallen, were the pleasant guests of Miss Lillie Evans on holiday week.

This picture is the trade mark of SCOTT'S EMULSION, and is on every bottle of SCOTT'S EMUL-SION in the World, which now amounts to many millions yearly.
This great business has grown to such vast proportions,

First—Because the proprietors have always been most careful in selecting the various ingredients used in its composition, namely;
the finest Cod Liver Oil, and the purest Hypophosphites.

Second—Because they have so skillfully combined the various ingredients that the best possible results are obtained by its use.

Third—Because it has made so many sickly, delicate children strong and healthy, given health and rosy cheeks to so many pale, anaemic girls, and healed the lungs and restored to full health, so many thousands in the first stages of Consumption.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample.
Its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Two Splendid Publications.

No two papers that long experience has brought us in contact with can compare with The Saturday Blade and The Chicago Ledger from a newspaper standpoint. They possess all the essentials of the successful newspaper. Each week the papers appear. The Saturday Blade teems with all the latest news up to day of publication, carefully and ably edited and fully illustrated, many of the illustrations appearing in colors equaling, if not exceeding the best work on the great metropolitan dailies.
Many attractive and special features appear in The Saturday Blade each week. The columns of The Chicago Ledger are devoted to miscellaneous matter and the best stories from the pens of modern writers. The Chicago Ledger is also finely illustrated, and both papers are typographically perfect.

On the night of January 1st, an
"Old Time Fiddler's Contest" will be held in the academy chapel.
Everybody should attend, and be carried back through "the sweet strains" to "the good old times" our fathers are to have. Doors open at 6:15; music will begin at 7:00. Admission ten cents.

Ex-President Harrison Tries Golf.

When Edward Bok, editor of The Ladies' Home Journal, heard that ex-President Harrison was practicing golf on a links near Indianapolis, he took a new ball out of his golf-bag and expressed it to the general, with the words, "Drive this."

In a few days came back a dispatch:

"Thanks. I have. But doesn't a bottle of liniment go with each ball?" BENJAMIN HARRISON.

As this is the last issue of 1900, we would like to have our list doubled during the coming year. So step up and subscribe now.

Wm. H. Cord will preach here
Sunday morning and evening.
Morning topic for sermon will be
"The Church—Its Growth," evening topic will be "The Church—Its Mission." Let everybody attend each service. Especially should those who have heard the others of the series hear these two sermons.

The Farm Journal is cream, not skim-milk, and just the paper for the man who keeps cows. You can get the Farm Journal for 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904 to every one who will pay in advance for THE HERALD. Both papers for 65c.

Noah Cisco was at Lee City Monday in the interest of the academy. Quite a number of young men and women from that community will enroll next week.

Our proposition on the Farm Journal expires Jan. 1, 1901, and the price of the Courier-Journal will be increased to $1.00 at the same time. So, if you want to subscribe now is the time!

Wm. H. Cord went to West Liberty Saturday, returning Monday afternoon. He preached five sermons while there, which were well received.

An open session of the two literary societies of Hazel Green academy will be held on the evening of January 4th. All persons are invited to attend.

The Winchester bank will please accept our thanks for a beautiful calendar of 1901.

Some two months ago H. F. Pieratt lost a bundle containing a brown cloth overcoat, two suits of underwear, necktie, &c., between High Falls and the residence of Granville Evans. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the bundle at H. F. Pieratt's store or this office. tf

All who desire to wear nicely laundered shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., should call on Robert Cord, agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry, the work of which is superior to that of any laundry in the state. tf

If your horse or mule has a lump, bunch, bone spavin, curb, splint or any like ailment, go to John M. Rose and get a bottle of Quinn's Ointment, which will remove the obstacle. tf

Why send away from home for pianos, organs, sewingmachines, buggies, &c., when we can and will save you money, and goods will be first-class. We sell direct from factories and save you the jobbers profit, which is always big enough.
We will repair your sewingma-chines, watches, clocks, &c., in first-class style and at reasonable prices.
We can astonish you in prices on fine bibles, picture frames, watches, jewelry, etc., etc. Kindly soliciting the patronage of Wolfe and surrounding counties.

Mail orders shall have special attention. When answering this advertisement, say you saw it in

THURSDAY, December 27, 1900

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Representative—91st District.

MORRIS—We are authorized to announce J. P. MORRIS, of Morgan county, as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature from Morgan and Wolfe counties, subject to action of the Democratic party.

CECIL—We are authorized to announce JAMES B. CECIL, of Morgan county, as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature from Morgan and Wolfe counties, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

THE war is not over in South Africa yet, but Lord Roberts is on his way home and expects to have a grand reception when he reaches old England. We, too, have a foreign war, the end of which is not in sight. Our "English-speaking cousins" were greatly delighted when we got into it. Now, in these merry Christmas times, both of these sets of "cousins" will think of the hard times many of their boys are having in camp and field, and will wonder how many of the brave soldier boys will never see home again.

THE Christmas edition of The Morning Herald, of Lexington, published Sunday, December 16th, is on our desk before us, and it is a gem, and shows the enterprise of that great journalist. When we tore the wrapper off, we were amazed at the beauty and style of its production, and surpasses anything that we have ever seen for beauty and excellency. The editor is a man of deep thought with a famous name, and is known all over the country as a great newspaper man.

MR. HANNA met a stunning surprise when he demanded that the senate committee on finance reduce the beer tax to $1 in return for the aid extended by the brewers in the campaign. He found that there were some honest republicans on the committee who objected to using the United States Treasury to pay campaign debts and the sensation nearly took his breath away.

FOR the United States to denounce the Clayton Bulwer treaty would be for it to merely follow the example that Britain has set time and again in dealing with weaker powers. The United States is rapidly becoming a much stronger power than England. Why shouldn't it treat it as it has treated others?

REPRESENTATIVE HOPKINS plan for "no increase" in the membership of the House under the new census is admittedly by far the best, but what chance will it stand when it is known that it proves for a reduction in Indiana, Ohio and Maine?

THE Standard Oil company is going to invade Europe. People over there who have anything to lose had better deposit it in their safety vaults at once.

GUERRILLAS who captured more than half a regiment of the best British troops, in a country dominated by 210,000 other British soldiers can hardly be dismissed as being mere guerillas.

THE Booz scandal has been pretty well dissipated by now. There never was anything in it but a sensational reporter who played on the feelings of a stricken family.

SECRETARY HAY's formal statement that he alone drew up the Hay-Pauncefote convention and that Britain accepted it without altering a single word, is calculated to take one's breath away. It is understandable that the treaty might have been worked out on a give and take basis as the best that England would concede, but that an American secretary of state should propose such a document and should then declare that Britain would never, never, consent to any amendment in it, is about as incredible a proposition as we can well imagine.

THE ship trust will probably be choked off at this session, at least. heretofore, trusts have fastened themselves on the people without aid of the government. This is the first time that one has demanded government aid in the work.

EMPEROR WILHELM and the long-some crowd who made the mistake of leaping into the 20th century on January 1st last, need only remain as their isolation for a few days longer. They'll soon have plenty of company.

WE hope that Mr. Bryan will get as many subscribers for his new paper as he got votes at the last election. In that case, he will be beyond the need of toil for the balance of his life.

IT is somewhat curious that the announcement that the African gold mines must pay much of the cost of the war was quickly followed by a sudden recrudescence of hostilities there.

CHICAGO is going to suppress fake prize fights. This is more than sufficient to satisfy the most ardent opponent of the ring. Few hoped for such a wholesale suppression.

By the way, isn't there some little chance that DeWet may eat his Christmas dinner at Pretoria and thus shut General Buller out for another year.

Well, anyhow, President McKinley seems to have had influence enough with Ex-President Harrison to prevent his saying it before the election.

Ohio police wardens have no aesthetic tastes. One of them has severely punished a convict who insisted on keeping his striped pantaloons creased.

Boston is said to be in the grip of the ice trust, but perhaps it is only a slight excess of hauteur that has caused the inauguration of that belief.

The British are laying in a supply of bikes for chasing the Boers and the Boers are providing themselves with tacks and just waiting.

The trouble with Tommy Atkins seems to be that he hasn't any whiskers. Let him grow them and then he can meet the Boers.

ROOSEVELT is now learning the penalties of being a vice-president. He hasn't been in the papers more than twice in the last week.

No, PAUL, no, the Mormon laws will not be stabilized in preparing that constitutional amendment in regard to marriage.

The Banana trust has failed. One would naturally expect even a trust to slip up on the banana.

We wonder whether Castellane doesn't think it costs more to live than it is worth.

part last week.

Old Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife spent Sunday night with us.
We enjoyed their visit very much.
Come again, Uncle and Aunt.

I wonder what Willie Sweeney goes over to Rev. Miller's so often for? Is it because he's a good boy, or is it to see his daughter?

Miss Carrie Swango and her brother Cletis spent from Friday till Sunday with their cousin Lillie Cecil, of Grassy.

Ye scribe had the pleasure of entertaining some of my friends Saturday night. It being my birthday, they surprised me by giving some handsome presents.
Allow me to thank them, and to say that I will always be glad to welcome them in my home.

Dec. 24. EINNIM.

LACY CREEK, KY., Dec. 21, 1900.
Editor HERALD:

DEAR SIR—Seeing an editorial in
your paper to the citizens of Hazel Green and vicinity in regard to
whiskey being sold in your town.
As justice of the peace for Wolfe
county, all I ask of the good citizens of Hazel Green and vicinity,
is their co-operation in putting
down crime of any kind, and especially the sale of liquors of any kind. I am against the sale of the
cursed stuff in any way, and if the
citizens of Hazel Green and community will report those violators
of the law to me, I will have them
brought to account for such violation as speedily as I can.

Yours respectfully,
Jno. D. Rose, J. P. W. C.

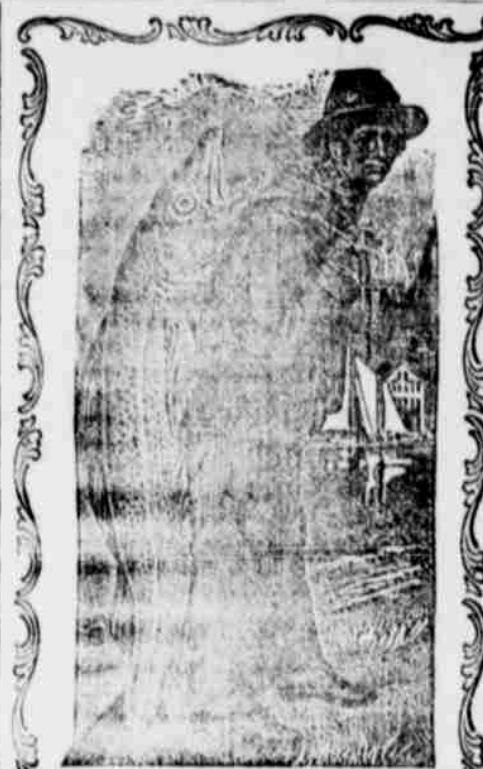

Hazel Green Academy will open
for the winter and spring terms,
next Tuesday, January 1st. Prof.
Cord tells us the prospects for an increased enrollment and attendance were never so good before.
The "two hundred mark" will be reached in enrollment, and every-
be."

Don't fail to get Truth's beautiful calendar for 1901. It accompanies the Christmas number of
the magazine, and is a marvel of
beautiful color work. The design is a four paneled screen, printed
on heavy card board, with reproductions from paintings by the well-known artist, Percy Moran.

WEST LIBERTY, Dec. 20, 1900.
The democratic committee of the 91st legislative district, composed of the counties of Morgan
and Wolfe, are requested to meet
at Ezel, Ky., on December 29, 1900, to attend to any business
that may come before it.

JOHN CARTER,
Chairman of Morgan county.

Miss Emma Fallen, of Gilmore,
and her brother, Lee Fallen, were
the pleasant guests of Miss Lillie Evans on holiday week.

This picture is the trade mark of SCOTT'S EMULSION, and is on
every bottle of SCOTT'S EMUL-SION in the World, which now
amounts to many millions yearly.
This great business has grown to
such vast proportions,

First—Because the proprietors
have always been most careful in
selecting the various ingredients
used in its composition, namely;
the finest Cod Liver Oil, and the purest Hypophosphites.

Second—Because they have so skillfully combined the various
ingredients that the best possible
results are obtained by its use.

Third—Because it has made so
many sickly, delicate children
strong and healthy, given health
and rosy cheeks to so many pale,
anaemic girls, and healed the lungs
and restored to full health, so many thousands in the first stages of Consumption.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample,
its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Two Splendid Publications.

No two papers that long experience has brought us in contact with can compare with The Saturday Blade and The Chicago Ledger
from a newspaper standpoint. They possess all the essentials of the successful newspaper. Each week
the papers appear. The Saturday Blade teems with all the latest
news up to day of publication,
carefully and ably edited and fully
illustrated, many of the illustrations appearing in colors equaling,
if not exceeding the best work on
the great metropolitan dailies.
Many attractive and special features appear in The Saturday Blade
each week. The columns of The Chicago Ledger are devoted to miscellaneous matter and the best
stories from the pens of modern
writers. The Chicago Ledger is also finely illustrated, and both
papers are typographically perfect.

On the night of January 1st, an
"Old Time Fiddler's Contest" will be held in the academy chapel.
Everybody should attend, and be
carried back through "the sweet
strains" to "the good old times"
our fathers are to have. Doors open at 6:15; music will begin at 7:00. Admission ten cents.

Ex-President Harrison Tries Golf.

When Edward Bok, editor of
The Ladies' Home Journal, heard
that ex-President Harrison was
practicing golf on a links near Indianapolis, he took a new ball out of his golf-bag and expressed it to the general, with the words, "Drive
this."

In a few days came back a dispatch:

"Thanks. I have. But doesn't
a bottle of liniment go with each
ball?" BENJAMIN HARRISON.

As this is the last issue of 1900, we
would like to have our list doubled
during the coming year. So step up and subscribe now.

Wm. H. Cord will preach here
Sunday morning and evening.
Morning topic for sermon will be
"The Church—Its Growth," evening topic will be "The Church—Its Mission." Let everybody attend each service. Especially should
those who have heard the others
of the series hear these two sermons.

skim-milk, and just the paper for
the man who keeps cows. You can get the Farm Journal for 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904 to every one who will pay in advance for THE HERALD. Both papers for 65c.

Noah Cisco was at Lee City
Monday in the interest of the academy. Quite a number of young men and women from that community will enroll next week.

Our proposition on the Farm Journal expires Jan. 1, 1901, and the price of the Courier-Journal
will be increased to $1.00 at the same time. So, if you want to
subscribe now is the time!

Wm. H. Cord went to West Liberty Saturday, returning Monday afternoon. He preached five sermons while there, which were well received.

An open session of the two literary societies of Hazel Green
academy will be held on the evening of January 4th. All persons are invited to attend.

The Winchester bank will please accept our thanks for a beautiful calendar of 1901.

Some two months ago H. F. Pieratt lost a bundle containing a
brown cloth overcoat, two suits of underwear, necktie, &c., between High Falls and the residence of

be liberally rewarded by leaving
the bundle at H. F. Pieratt's store
or this office. tf

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Representative—91st District.

MORRIS—We are authorized to announce J. P. MORRIS, of Morgan county, as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature from Morgan and Wolfe counties, subject to action of the Democratic party.

CECIL—We are authorized to announce JAMES B. CECIL, of Morgan county, as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature from Morgan and Wolfe counties, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

THE war is not over in South Africa yet, but Lord Roberts is on his way home and expects to have a grand reception when he reaches old England. We, too, have a foreign war, the end of which is not in sight. Our "English-speaking cousins" were greatly delighted when we got into it. Now, in these merry Christmas times, both of these sets of "cousins" will think of the hard times many of their boys are having in camp and field, and will wonder how many of the brave soldier boys will never see home again.

THE Christmas edition of The Morning Herald, of Lexington, published Sunday, December 16th, is on our desk before us, and it is a gem, and shows the enterprise of that great journalist. When we tore the wrapper off, we were amazed at the beauty and style of its production, and surpasses anything that we have ever seen for beauty and excellency. The editor is a man of deep thought with a famous name, and is known all over the country as a great newspaper man.

MR. HANNA met a stunning surprise when he demanded that the senate committee on finance reduce the beer tax to $1 in return for the aid extended by the brewers in the campaign. He found that there were some honest republicans on the committee who objected to using the United States Treasury to pay campaign debts and the sensation nearly took his breath away.

FOR the United States to denounce the Clayton Bulwer treaty would be for it to merely follow the example that Britain has set time and again in dealing with weaker powers. The United States is rapidly becoming a much stronger power than England. Why shouldn't it treat it as it has treated others?

REPRESENTATIVE HOPKINS plan for "no increase" in the membership of the House under the new census is admittedly by far the best, but what chance will it stand when it is known that it proves for a reduction in Indiana, Ohio and Maine?

THE Standard Oil company is going to invade Europe. People over there who have anything to lose had better deposit it in their safety vaults at once.

GUERRILLAS who captured more than half a regiment of the best British troops, in a country dominated by 210,000 other British soldiers can hardly be dismissed as being mere guerillas.

THE Booz scandal has been pretty well dissipated by now. There never was anything in it but a sensational reporter who played on the feelings of a stricken family.

SECRETARY HAY's formal statement that he alone drew up the Hay-Pauncefote convention and that Britain accepted it without altering a single word, is calculated to take one's breath away. It is understandable that the treaty might have been worked out on a give and take basis as the best that England would concede, but that an American secretary of state should propose such a document and should then declare that Britain would never, never, consent to any amendment in it, is about as incredible a proposition as we can well imagine.

THE ship trust will probably be choked off at this session, at least. heretofore, trusts have fastened themselves on the people without aid of the government. This is the first time that one has demanded government aid in the work.

EMPEROR WILHELM and the long-some crowd who made the mistake of leaping into the 20th century on January 1st last, need only remain as their isolation for a few days longer. They'll soon have plenty of company.

WE hope that Mr. Bryan will get as many subscribers for his new paper as he got votes at the last election. In that case, he will be beyond the need of toil for the balance of his life.

IT is somewhat curious that the announcement that the African gold mines must pay much of the cost of the war was quickly followed by a sudden recrudescence of hostilities there.

CHICAGO is going to suppress fake prize fights. This is more than sufficient to satisfy the most ardent opponent of the ring. Few hoped for such a wholesale suppression.

By the way, isn't there some little chance that DeWet may eat his Christmas dinner at Pretoria and thus shut General Buller out for another year.

Well, anyhow, President McKinley seems to have had influence enough with Ex-President Harrison to prevent his saying it before the election.

Ohio police wardens have no aesthetic tastes. One of them has severely punished a convict who insisted on keeping his striped pantaloons creased.

Boston is said to be in the grip of the ice trust, but perhaps it is only a slight excess of hauteur that has caused the inauguration of that belief.

The British are laying in a supply of bikes for chasing the Boers and the Boers are providing themselves with tacks and just waiting.

THE trouble with Tommy Atkins seems to be that he hasn't any whiskers. Let him grow them and then he can meet the Boers.

ROOSEVELT is now learning the penalties of being a vice-president. He hasn't been in the papers more than twice in the last week.

No, PAUL, no, the Mormon laws will not be stabilized in preparing that constitutional amendment in regard to marriage.

THE Banana trust has failed. One would naturally expect even a trust to slip up on the banana.

WE wonder whether Castellane doesn't think it costs more to live than it is worth.
